MISSIONARIES TO BRAZIL

Second Generation Missionaries

Monroe, GA October 1, 2009

Dear supporters and prayer partners,

“Rejoice in the LORD, O ye righteous: for praise is comely for the upright.” Ps. 33:1. As Matthew Henry put it, “We need not be at a loss for proper thoughts in singing this psalm, which so naturally expresses the pious affections of a devout soul towards God.” We have so many reasons to “rejoice in the Lord”, Oh, Rejoice in the Lord!

Rejoicing in Furlough News: September was very busy for us with several missions' conferences and meetings in Georgia and South Carolina. We were in a church service somewhere for at least 21 days of the month. What an opportunity! As Psalm 27:4 says, “One thing have I desired of the LORD, that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.” If you would like for us to come present our burden to you and your church please call, 770-207-1708 or 770-696-3874.

Rejoicing in Field News: Ricardo has informed us that the mission's conference they had at Victory Baptist Church in Joinville September 19-20, was a blessing, with good attendance including some visitors. Our church faithfully supports four missionary families, two in Brazil, one in Venezuela, and another in Portugal. On the 19th the visiting preacher was at the home of one of our members and was used to lead her husband, Ervino, to the Lord! Oh, Rejoice in the Lord!

Rejoicing in Family News: Stephanie has recuperated well from having her tonsils and adenoids removed and the only side effect is that it has changes her voice a bit. She did scare us while we were at a conference in Alpharetta, GA. She woke us up at 3:30am throwing up blood in the Hotel bathroom! We rushed her to the Hospital and her Doctor met us there to check her. Praise the Lord, it looked worse than it really was. She is fine. Oh, Rejoice in the Lord!

Rejoicing in Financial News: I thought this heading might get your attention. We praise the Lord for one more Church that has prayerfully taken us on for support. We are praying and trusting the Lord to give us 15 new supporting churches by June of 2010. This will help us greatly with the plans we have to start a new church in the Adhemar Garcia neighborhood of Joinville, as we continue to help Ricardo with the Victory Baptist Church and the Morro do Meio work.

Finally, we Rejoice in the Lord for you which are a lifeline to the ministry God has called us to do. Your faithful prayers and financial support are so important to us. Oh, Rejoice in the Lord with us!
